

Professional Book Study using:
Content-Area Writing

by Daniels, Zemelman, Steineke

Join us in reading and studying

Teachers of Grades 6-12

Garfield Building

25 West Pleasant Street
Springfield, OH 45506

REGISTER NOW!

On the web:

clarkesc.org

OR EMAIL AT:

ckbo_kcrain@

k12server.mveca.org

Graduate Credit Available
Wright State University.
$163 - 1 quarter hour
credit. Certificate of Attendance for 10.5 hours.

The Book Study sessions are free to all
Clark County Local
District and Springfield
City Public School
educators. All others
are welcome to attend
for a registration fee of $75.00.

Book Study Leader: *Karen Roettger,
Clark County Educational Service Center

Book Study Group Dates:

September 18; October 2; October 16; October 28; November 13; and December 11, 2008

Please register by September 4, 2008 for book order.
Minimum 10 participants required to conduct the book study.

4:00 p.m. Refreshments

4:15 - 6:00 p.m. Workshop

Book provided for all participants.

Regular Attendance is Expected.

No matter what subject you teach, Content-Area Writing is for you, especially if you're juggling broad curriculum mandates, thick textbooks, and severe time constraints. It not only shows that incorporating carefully structured writing activities into your lessons actually increases understanding and achievement, but also proves how writing can save, not consume, valuable instructional time. Content-Area Writing guides you strategically through the two major types of writing that every student must know:

- 📖 Writing to Learn: the quick, exploratory, and extemporaneous in-class writing that helps kids engage deeply with content, build connections, and retain what they've learned; and
- 📖 Public Writing: planned, constructed, and polished writing in which students demonstrate knowledge and reflect on what they've learned.